TO-DAY'S TEN BEST BARGAINS

BY THE HERALD SHOPPER

Two rare bargains await Saturday shoppers at the Chase Piano Store, 1207 G Street Northwest. There is a beautiful upright piano for $200, which can be bought at the rate of $5.00 per month. The other is a high-grade upright for $100 each.

The hairdressing shop of May H.
Rowe, 2014 Fourteenth Street Northwest, is rapidly becoming the favorite headquarters of women who appreciate expert service. The manicuring service is equally good.

The Shopper paid a visit to the attractive jewelry shop of M. Pfeil yesterday, and spent a pleasant half hour among the elegant new creations in gold, silver, and gems. This shop, located at 112 G Street Northwest, is owned by the high character of its merchandise and the fairness of its prices.

The value of a good medicinal whisky is apparent to every home.
The Columbia Club Whiskey, offered at $1.00 per quart by William J. Donovan, 1528 Seventh Street Northwest, is an ideal tonic and stimulant, properly distilled to give it the rich, mellow flavor for which it is noted.

Mahoney, the paint and wallpaper man, is ready to decorate your home in an artistic manner at moderate cost.
Visit his shop at 224 Pa. Ave. S. E., or call Lincoln 552.

The celebrated corsets created by Mme.
Pfeil are familiar to elite dressers everywhere. They possess numerous special features that enhance both the beauty of figure and the comfort of the wearer. These corsets are sold in Washington by Mattie E. Poyntz, 706 Eleventh Street Northwest. Special for Saturday this shop is offering a lot of sample corsets at 25 per cent reduction.
In corset matters it is always wise to consult this expert corsetier.

$10.00 is a price as low as the shopper was surprised to find that could command such splendid, tailored garments for men as those shown by Mr. M. P.
Fitzsimmons, 2014 North Street Northwest. Both suits and overcoats are being made for $10.00 and Mr. Fitzsimmons says he is kept busy turning them out.
He has just received an order for an entire shirt.

A visit to the Hat Shop of Christine Kurtz, 1715 Seventh Street Northwest, rewarded the Shopper with a view of some of the handsomest millinery shown this season. The $10.00 trimmed hats offered at $7.50 and the $25.00 hats offered at $18.00 Saturday bargains of millinery are offered for $5.

ARREST ALLEGED JEWEL THIEF Buffalo Police Hold Man as Head of Daring Band of Crooks.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 14.—In the arrest of Joseph Foran, the Buffalo police today have secured the head of a band of jewel thieves who have been in New York for some time. Foran, 35 years of age, was arrested during the last two years in connection with the theft of a large quantity of jewelry.

It is reported that the band has operated in Baltimore, Chicago, Philadelphia, and New York. The man would open a small jewelry store in a city, buy from wholesale dealers, and then sell the goods at a profit. When they had established a good line of credit, they would move on to another city and repeat the same process. They would then close up and move on to another city.

Foran was arrested by the Buffalo police after a long chase. He was found in the city of Buffalo, and was taken to the police station. He is now being held in connection with the theft of jewelry.

FIX CAPITAL GIRL'S BOND.
New York Court Holds Mrs. Fitzhugh in $5,000 Bail.

New York, March 14.—The woman arrested here charged with stealing purples and jewels from a church, and said to be the wife of a man who has been in prison for some time, was held in $5,000 bail on two charges to-night. Her attorney, Frank E. Johnson, said she might obtain bail at any time, and for the fact that wealthy friends were afraid to come forward because of the notoriety they might get.

A representative of the district attorney today asked that bail be placed at $5,000, fearing the woman might escape.
Her attorney asked to have her paroled in his custody.

From the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, whose officers have been looking for the child the woman had with her at the Hotel Plantation, it has not been able to get a trace of it. They wish to know who has it.
The woman says she sent it to friends.

PROF. SPOONER FREED.
Jury Acquits Son of Capital Pastor Charged with Serious Offense.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Elmira, N. Y., March 14.—The Police Court jury today acquitted the son of the Rev. Dr. J. C. Spooner, a prominent member of the church, of a charge of seduction. The boy, 19 years of age, was charged with seducing a girl, 17 years old, who was the daughter of a prominent member of the church.

The boy was charged with seducing the girl on or about March 1, 1912. The girl was charged with seducing the boy on or about March 1, 1912. The jury found in favor of the boy.

Close Contests in Saloons.
West Chester, Pa., March 14.—A severe fight was struck at the liquor traffic in West Chester, Pa., this morning when Judges Hemphill and Butler, after a conference, unexpectedly handed down a joint opinion revoking all licenses of saloons in West Chester, Pa. They also revoked the license of the saloon in Valley Forge. Notice was served at once by the court officers upon the proprietors of all the saloons involved, and the bars were closed for at least a year.

C. E. Russell to Speak.
"Remedies and Progress" will be the subject of Charles Edward Russell at the Federal Hall, 521 Seventh Street, Monday evening. Mr. Russell was the principal speaker at the indignation meeting held in the Columbia Theater a week ago when Maj. Sylvester was condemned for alleged negligence in regard to the police protection afforded the suffrage parade, March 2.

Killed by Lightning Bolt.
Baltimore, Md., March 14.—Louis Simpson, a wealthy Chicago man, was killed early today by a bolt of lightning during a terrific thunderstorm, which was a part of the tornado that swept over this State.
Mr. Simpson was struck while riding horseback along the banks of the Patuxent River. His wife is thought to be a guest at the Hotel Manhattan, New York City.

Fifty Hurt in Riot.
Paris, March 14.—Fifty persons are suffering from injuries today as the result of an attack made by partisans of the royalist party upon a meeting of Christian Socialists last night. The Socialists had met to denounce the government for its expenditures to strengthen the national defenses.

Man Succumbs to Injuries.
The unidentified white man who was struck by a street car Thursday night at Third Street and Pennsylvania Avenue Northwest died at the Emergency Hospital yesterday without regaining consciousness. His skull was badly fractured, and he sustained other injuries. There is nothing to reveal his identity. He appeared to be about fifty years old, 5 feet 4 inches in height, weighed about 150 pounds, and had gray hair and black eyes.
